

F Block

Built in 1978 on the site of a grove of pine trees and known as the 'Communications Block' it housed the English and Languages departments before English and Maths swapped locations. F Block was refurbished in 2018 and became additional space for the Music department.

